

OCEANSIDE LIBRARY NEWSLETTER

November/December 2018

LIVE CONCERTS

OCEANSIDE CHORALE PRESENTS:

A VETERANS TRIBUTE

Saturday, November 3 // 3 pm

Following a line up of informative speakers regarding Veteran benefits and programs, the Oceanside Chorale will salute the Veterans with patriotic classics. The Oceanside Chorale is one of Long Island's longstanding community singing groups. For more info about our Veterans Day Salute, see pg. 8.

GOLDEN TONE ORCHESTRA

Sunday, November 18 // 2 pm

Be prepared for an afternoon of nostalgia with music and vocals from jazz and swing to modern show tunes. The Library will be transformed into a concert hall of the past. The Golden Tone Orchestra is a band of musicians, most of whom are retired professionals, and some played with the Big Bands! This concert is sponsored by NEFCU.

SYLPH CHAMBER MUSIC

Sunday, December 2 // 2 pm

Sylph Chamber Music will add the ethereal and healing properties of Crystal Singing Bowls to a holiday concert of traditional favorites! Nadine Scharman will play the flute, Ann Zalkind on the piano and Andrea Randa on vocals and Crystal Singing Bowls.

A TRIBUTE TO THE LADIES OF BROADWAY

Saturday, December 8 // 2 pm

A performance of classic and contemporary Broadway hits made famous by Judy Garland, Julie Andrews, Barbra Streisand, Ethel Merman, Liza Minnelli, Sutton Foster, and Idina Menzel. Directed by Rebecca Goldfarb. Performed by students of the Oceanside School District.

SCIENCE CAFE

Our innovative series of informal evenings of coffee and conversation about cutting-edge science topics with experts from the field. Ages adult-high school.

THE FUTURE OF NAVAL ARCHITECTURE & ENGINEERING

Thursday, November 8 // 7 pm

Featuring Dean Matthew R. Werner of Webb Institute.

LECTURES

FRANKENSTEIN CELEBRATES 200:

ADAPTING SHELLEY TO THE SILVER SCREEN

Thursday, November 1 // 2 pm

Mary Shelley's Frankenstein, a novel of Gothic horror turns 200 years old in 2018. Join us in a birthday celebration as we examine the cinematic adaptations of Shelley's problem child. Starting with Thomas Edison's 1910 adaptation, and following through with Universal Pictures classic with Boris Karloff, we come up to the present while viewing clips of films based on Shelley's work.

LEGENDARY LOCALS

Wednesday, November 7 // 7 pm

Join Richard Woods, resident historian, and author of Images of America: Oceanside and Legendary Locals of Oceanside, for a lecture that will highlight our most famous and prominent citizens of the past! Names like Artie Heyman and David Paymer may sound familiar and are just a few of many famous athletes and actors that came from Oceanside.

COMEDY DUO: ABBOTT & COSTELLO

Thursday, November 8 // 2 pm

Bud Abbott and Lou Costello formed a popular comedy duo whose work in vaudeville, radio, film and television made them one of the most popular teams in the history of comedy. Their partnership lasted more than two decades and was noted for their unique chemistry and superb comedic timing. This lecture, by Ira Epstein, will examine their routines and analyze their comedic elements by means of numerous audiovisual clips.

IN THE GARDEN WITH THE OCEANSIDE GARDEN CLUB

Tuesday, November 13 // 7 pm

Keith Linsalata, from the Art Flower & Gift Shop in Rockville Centre, will be demonstrating the use of fruits and vegetables along with flowers in designing holiday arrangements.

1968: 50 YEARS LATER

HOW EVENTS 50 YEARS AGO SHAPED THE WORLD

Thursday, November 15 // 2 pm

Join award-winning sports journalist Evan Weiner, for this in-depth look at how the media – especially television – came into its own in the 1960s. From the first of the Kennedy-Nixon debates in 1960, to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, and the scathing assessment of Vietnam by Walter Cronkite, Weiner explores how the media matured and by 1968 the world came into the living room.

EGYPT: TUTANKHAMUN, CLEOPATRA, MOSES, AND TODAY.

Thursday, December 6 // 2 pm

Egypt is one of the founding civilizations of human culture. Located between Asia, Africa, and Europe, Egypt influenced human architecture, writing, art, music, and religion. Even today tourists flock to this exotic land lusting for adventure; archeologists seek to find the origins of humanity, theologians attempt to discover the roots of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam; and extraterrestrials are rumored to consider Egypt one of their sacred cities. Join Dr. Ronald Brown in exploring this land of mystery, history, and danger. (a B.O.B. program)
